BAND STORY

"Adrian De-shon Dent was born April 13, 1990. Adrian grew up in the entertainment industry, putting him around movies, music, and more for most of his life. Adrian performed with his mother for LEA in April of 2000. The crowd was pumped and screaming for the entire concert. At the age of ten, Adrian never thought of doing anything in the entertainment industry until his mother started doing films. This struck something in him, and showed him his dream job. He wanted to go into the production part of the entertainment industry. Acting Career On January 20, 2006, Disney Channel's High School Musical premiered first the time. Adrian wasn't really a fan of the Disney Channel but when Adrian saw the movie he said, "I can do that". This is really when the singing and acting talent began to be released. Adrian is a Actor, Writer, Producer, Director. He has acting experience in movies and on stage. His experience includes the High School Musical stage play acting as Chad Danforth and acting in two movies: Something About Destiny and soon to be released Chauva. He has the vision to change the whole concept of "HOLLYWOOD". The Music Adrian doesn't see himself as just a singer but an actor and rapper. He is always saying that he has fun while he recording music. Adrian has written several songs but mainly does cover songs for artists ranging from Gavin Degraw to the Jonas Brothers. He was offered a contract by Hollywood Records (Disney's Record Label), but he decided to do more with his acting before he started his music career. He has several singles out now that he written and produced. He is working on a CD that will be released in July of 2010. Source-Angie Newman"
